Attention: Any AFM member in good standing has the right to act as contractor for any engagement. The following list (with the consent of those indicated) is provided merely as a courtesy and does not reflect endorsement of any particular individual or any other members of the Local. Local 369 AFM, does not have an official category for “contractors.” However, the following names are individuals known to the Union as contracting, albeit with varying degrees of frequency. They have done so in compliance with Local 369 Bylaws and Scale Book Regulations. The list by no means reflects all those who contract, whether regularly or sporadically.

Reminder: It is the right of any member to contact the Union to verify a contract has been filed for the engagement for which they have been retained. This entitlement includes information as to wages and benefits. Please be aware that in the absence of a contract, the Union is limited as to the action it can take on a member’s behalf.
